

FACULTY ADVISOR POSITION

George Mason University and the Washington Youth Summit on the Environment (WYSE) seek several dynamic and enthusiastic individuals to fill the positions of Faculty Advisor for a week-long residential student leadership conference held June 23-28, 2024.

About WYSE: WYSE brings together 300 of the Nation's brightest rising high school juniors and seniors for an intensive experiential conference focusing on leadership, environmental science, and conservation. Students and staff reside on the Fairfax campus of George Mason University, while taking advantage of Washington, D.C. and venues such as the Smithsonian's National Zoo and the U.S. Capitol. Detailed information and a tentative schedule can be found at wyse.gmu.edu.

Job Description: The Faculty Advisor is responsible for facilitating the assigned curriculum and providing students with the best possible conference experience. Each Advisor will be assigned to a group of students that they will lead along with a Junior Faculty Advisor for the summit duration.

Job Duties:

- Lead a group of up to 23 students and facilitate the assigned curriculum and discussion topics
- Work with one Junior Faculty Advisor as a mentor in the implementation of the curriculum
- Be able and willing to interact in a large group setting and hold responsibility for the safety and wellbeing of students at all times during the summit

Job Requirements:

- Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree, advanced degree(s) preferred
- Must be 21 years of age
- Ability to carry out the responsibilities listed above and abide by the Summit Code of Conduct
- Interest and knowledge of environmental science/conservation studies/sustainability/engineering or related field
- Experience and/or interest in working with high school students
- A high energy level, flexibility, and the ability to work extended days and hours
- Travel to and from campus at the start and end of the summit and pay for parking if using a personal vehicle
- Must report to campus at 3 p.m. ET on June 21, 2024 and reside on campus at George Mason University for the week with departure on June 28, 2024
- Pass a mandatory criminal background check
- U.S. citizenship or lawful permanent residency

Training: In-person training on June 21 and 22 is REQUIRED and on campus at George Mason University. Housing is provided during training.

Housing: Single-room accommodation is provided from June 21 to June 28.

Travel: Travel to and from George Mason University is not provided.

Arrival: Arrive on campus Friday, June 21 by 3 p.m.

Departure: Leave campus any time after 11 a.m. on Friday, June 28. Please make flight arrangements accordingly.

*If you are parking on campus, you will receive more information closer to the summer about purchasing a parking permit

Compensation: Faculty Advisors will receive $2,350 and single-room accommodation for the conference week plus 2 training days. We expect compensation to cover travel and minimal meal costs during the conference.

How to Apply: Send a resume and cover letter to the Director by March 1.
